More Than Conquerors

Romans 8:28-39

Small Group Questions, Study, Discussion & Prayer (Do NOT use all the questions, pick a few to discuss; use your own material).

Ice Breaker: (Introduction, 5 – 10 minutes)

1. When you view life, do you tend to see the glass half full or half empty?
2. What might be the reason for your looking at life from this viewpoint?
3. Would you like to see life from a different point of view?
4. What might you do differently to help bring this about?

Dig: (Bible Study, 20 – 25 minutes)

1. Today, do you feel more like a conqueror or conquered?
2. What confidence does verse 28 give believers about events that occur in their lives? When has it been hardest for you to believe this?
3. How have you seen God bring something good out of a bad situation?
4. From verses 29-30, what steps are outlined, “For those God foreknew”?
5. How do verses 31-34 support Romans 8:1, “There is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ”?
6. Of the agents of separation listed in verses 35-39, which is most threatening to you?
7. What phrase or verse from this passage particularly strikes you and why?

Application: (Living what we learn, 20 – 25 minutes)

1. How are you going through the school of hard-knocks right now?
2. What is the closest you have come to feeling the despair and loneliness of being separated from god like Paul describes in verses 31-39?
3. How can your life group be a strength and encouragement to you in difficult times?
4. How can you be a strength and encouragement to your life group?
5. How can your entire life group be a strength and an encouragement to a part of the church?
6. How can your entire life group be a strength and an encouragement to your city or community?
7. This next week, share something encouraging that happened to you during the course of your week with someone from church.
